

1st Radio Battalion

"My vision is for the Marine Corps to be manned, trained, and equipped as the world's premier naval expeditionary force-in readiness; forward-postured with the fleets to deter conflict and respond to crisis; and globally recognized as an elite Corps of Marines of exceptional talent and virtue... Success requires that we all ask and work to answer a handful of basic questions. What are we not doing today that we should be doing? What are we doing that we should be doing differently – a better way? What are we doing that we should stop doing...?"

COMMANDING OFFICER'S WELCOME ABOARD MESSAGE

Marines, Sailors, and Families of 1st Radio Battalion,

I wish to extend to you our most heartfelt welcome. I am LtCol Curtis A. Williamson, and I'm the commanding officer here at 1st Radio Battalion. I'm truly honored to be part of this Battalion and am happy to bring you and your family aboard.

1st Radio Battalion has a truly critical mission within I Marine Expeditionary Force, and it requires your best effort. The success of this Battalion requires our Marines and Sailors to be ready physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. That kind of balanced fitness requires the support of families. For that, I thank you immensely. Our Marines and Sailors are the core of this Battalion, and I welcome your input on how we can take care of our Marines, Sailors, and military families. If you can think of anything that you feel would enhance our family readiness, I would love to hear it. If you need anything, I highly encourage you to reach out to our Uniformed Readiness Coordinator and Deployment Readiness Coordinator.

We will continue to hold family events and provide opportunities for involvement for both our single Marines and Sailors and those with families. I look forward to meeting each and every Marine, Sailor, and family member at command events, promotion and award ceremonies, and through regular interactions around the 1st Radio Battalion facilities.

People are the Corps' most valuable resource. Our Marines and Sailors here at 1st Radio Battalion reinforce that belief daily. They give their best effort to the mission, unit, and the Corps, and I look forward to giving my best efforts back to them, and to you. Semper Fidelis.

Curtis A. Williamson

Commanding Officer

SERGEANT MAJOR'S WELCOME ABOARD MESSAGE

Welcome to 1st Radio Battalion aboard Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, California.

You are joining a formidable and storied Battalion, where the world's finest fighting men and women are trained to support the I Marine Expeditionary Force Information Group. With this great distinction comes a level of expectation that I ask you to make your own. I ask that all Marines and Sailors of 1st Radio Battalion hold themselves to the highest standards and embody our core values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment. We must take care of one another, our family, and remain at a high state of readiness. "Be the leader you would want to follow" our reputation should be based on our ability to accept all missions and then being able to get them done professionally, proficiently and with our integrity intact. We must train the way in which we expect to fight and that is with tough, realistic, physically and mentally challenging training.

The life of a Marine and Sailor is not one traveled by those faint of heart. Managing one's career and a family is enough for the average couple; however, you are not average. Our Battalion maintains a high operational tempo that will challenge and develop you both personally and professionally. Family Readiness cannot be an afterthought but instead it must be built within the fabric of our unit's structure. A Marine or Sailor that has planned properly will ensure his/her family is well taken care of and prepared for the challenges of being a one-parent family during any operation. When a Marine/Sailor knows that his/her family is taken care of he/she can better focus on mission accomplishment with clarity and commitment. Please take this responsibility seriously and do not put it off because "Every Day is Game Day."

In closing, I want to encourage you take advantage of the full spectrum of opportunities that Southern California, has to offer. Be it a temporary assignment, your first assignment or last, I wish you and your family great success in your military journey. A Marine's and Sailor's success at home can contribute to success professionally!

Semper Fidelis,

Kabiru M. Labaran

Kabiru M. Labaran

Sergeant Major, U.S. Marine Corps

FAMILY READINESS OFFICER

On behalf of the Commanding Officer, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the 1st Radio Battalion Family. My name is First Lieutenant Collin Craig Massman, and I am the 1st Radio Battalion Family Readiness Officer (FRO). Alongside the Family Readiness Command Team, I am here to carry out the Commander's vision for the Unit, Personal and Family Readiness Program (UP&FRP) and assist you and your family with all aspects of family readiness.

The Marine Corps defines “family” as any unit the Marine is born into, sworn into, or married into. This change has allowed us to incorporate all family members. So whether you are an active duty member, parent, spouse, child, significant other or an extended family member, please know that I am here to assist you and your family with information, resources and referrals. Family readiness equals mission readiness.

As such, the UP&FRP or Family Readiness Program is a Marine and family member’s one-stop-shop for Official Command Communication, Resources and Referral Information, Readiness and Deployment Support, and UP&FRP Volunteer Management. Our goal is to equip and assist Marines and their families in becoming well-informed and self-sufficient, and to improve their quality of life so as to ensure that family readiness on the home front ensures the Marine’s mission readiness.

As your FRO, I am dedicated to providing you with the support you need to successfully balance the challenges of a military lifestyle. Family readiness directly affects the fundamental purpose of the Marine Corps by building commitment and raising morale, thereby increasing unit readiness. Spouses, parents and all family members play an important role in the lives of our Marines and your contribution to 1st Radio Battalion is vital. I’m here to help everyone be proactive and ready at all times.

There are several ways in which you can participate and make meaningful contributions to the Family Readiness Program. We continuously seek Family Readiness Assistant volunteers, to help welcome new families and to provide the Family Readiness Command Team with valuable input and information for continued growth. Such activities include assisting with Family Days, New Join Briefs, Family Days, Spouse Socials, etc. Everyone is encouraged to participate in our Family Readiness Program; this benefits the entire unit.

Lastly, please take the opportunity to visit our social media pages for valuable family readiness updates and event information. You will find photos, newsletters, command messages, and many resources for both married and single Marines, parents, and kids. As always, feel free to call me or stop by my office anytime; my door is always open and I am readily available to assist.

Again, welcome to the 1st Radio Battalion family!

Collin Craig Massman

UNIT, PERSONAL AND FAMILY READINESS PROGRAM (UP&FRP)

The Family Readiness program requires that all newly joined Marines complete a UP&FRP form, and update their Family Readiness contacts in Marine Online (MOL) within 10 working days. Please be assured that all personal information will be kept in the strictest compliance with all policies regarding Personally Identifiable Information and the Privacy Act of 1974. PLEASE OBTAIN YOUR OFFICIAL UP&FRP AUTHORIZATION FORM FROM THE 1ST RAD BN or download and fill out the form and submit it to the FRO DURING YOUR CHECK-IN PROCESS. This is the Marine's responsibility.

The form may be downloaded at:

https://navalforms.documentservices.dla.mil/formsDir/NAVMC_11654_EF_5409.pdf

FAMILY CARE PLAN

To keep in compliance with MCO 1740.13C, ALL MARINES WITH DEPENDENTS and/or Dual Active Married Couples must complete a comprehensive Family Care Plan (FCP). This plan must provide for all contingencies both long and short term and in emergency situations that may possibly arise in the event that the Service Member is away and the Remain Behind Parent/Guardian becomes unable to care for a child or other adult dependent. FCPs are the individual Marine's responsibility. Failure to produce an FCP may be grounds for disciplinary actions and/or administrative separation from the Marine Corps if a situation causes a Marine to miss training or a deployment. This is mandatory.
